

It's Saturday

In our last issue it was stated that the P.D.S. bus came from Waterloo, Indiana. Concord Presbyterian Church is in Waterloo, Illinois, not Indiana. Sorry about that. Regardless of where Waterloo is, P.D.S. certainly appreciates the love and hard work that our brothers and sisters at Concord Pres. invested in getting the bus to us. We thank God for you.

CLASSES BEGIN AT P.D.S. Monday, January 7, 2008

After three weeks of holidays it was with mixed emotions that P.D.S. students and staff returned to the classroom. Many were content to be back if for nothing more than to be with their friends. Others were relieved to leave the work of home for the work of the classroom. Nonetheless, several returned with regret that the holiday had ended. Still all settled in and initiated a new term.

BACK FROM LONG LEAVE

We welcome back Diana Chan to our staff. She has been on Long Leave since July, 2007, caring for her sister's new baby and her own young son, Ryland. Finding a baby sitter for both children has proved difficult, so for now Ryland will be accompanying his mother to school each day.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO MY LITTLE BROTHERS

THE MEYER KIDS

Denise, David, Diane, Debbie, Dean,
Dorothy, Mom, and Dale

Today is baby brother Dale's birthday. If I'm not mistaken, he is celebrating 46 years of life. Happy birthday, kid. Dean, the next to the youngest, will be 48 on Monday the 14th. Have a good one, bro. And may God's face shine upon you both.

PIANO LESSONS BEGIN

Her first order of business was to teach the second graders while their classroom teacher was on Long Leave, but all the while Jill Tenharmel was preparing for her area of expertise, teaching children to play the keyboard. She has over 20 students who will be trained to play in their churches. It's been a long time coming.
